

CURRICULUM VITAE

Proposed role in the project:

Category:

Staff of

1. Family name: WICKLIN
2. First names: Brian
3. Date of birth: 18th April 1939
4. Nationality/Passport holder: Swedish
5. Civil status: Married
6. Education:

| Institution [Date from - Date to]                                               | Degree(s) or Diploma(s) obtained:                                                                                                                               |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Stockholm University, Institute for higher communication, Sweden (1996 to 1997) | Postgraduate course in higher skills in communication                                                                                                           |
| University of Uppsala, Sweden (1960 to 1966)                                    | BSc honours, Masters and 80 % completed PhD studies.Subjects: Economics, statistics, business administration, agricultural economics and product marketing. |

7. Language skills: Indicate competence on a scale of 1 to 5 (1 - excellent; 5 - basic)

| Language | Reading | Speaking | Writing |
|----------|---------|----------|---------|
| English  | 1       | 1        | 1       |
| Swedish  | 1       | 1        | 1       |

8. Membership of professional bodies:

International Statistical Institute (World Society of Statisticians, ISI), Statistical Society of Sweden and Marketing Society of Stockholm, Sweden

9. Other skills: Computer literate with excellent understanding of MS application programmes
10. Present position: Independent EU Expert/ Senior Consultant, VECA Consultancy of Sweden
11. Years within the firm: 30 years total experience and 12 as independent consultant

12. Key qualifications:

- Extensive knowledge and experiences from the Swedish Office of National Statistics in the areas of national accounts, economic statistics, statistical business registry, foreign trade in commodities and in design, gathering, screening, and interpretation of statistical data and dissemination/communication with providers and users.
- Good knowledge of institutional building with technical assistance to assist in the articulation and drafting of reports, terms of reference, identification of training and assistance needs. Experience of providing advisory services for policy making and regulatory bodies.
- Experiences in EU funded project implementation and in providing advisory services in developing good management and enforcement practice relating to development of National Statistical Systems.
- Advisory experiences to formulate strategy for statistics development and adoption of appropriate organisational structures for development of national statistical systems and support for the national statistical offices to acquire confidence in providing good quality statistics compliant with international and European standards.
- Extensive experience in participatory approaches and providing advisory services for capacity building up for adoption of EU statistics Acquis for national accounts, statistical business registry, economic statistics (macro and micro statistics), foreign trade statistics and surveys.
- Experiences extend also in making recommendations for adoption of INTRASTAT system for compiling, analysis and reporting of foreign trade in goods to EUROSTAT.
- Profound knowledge in communication and ability to work in multi-disciplinary teams and excellent relations with contracting authorities and beneficiary's institutions. Demonstrated ability to produce imaginative solutions and in preparing technical and non-technical reports to deadlines and to coordinate relations with government agencies, contracting authorities and beneficiary institutions.
- Proven track record for working in multi-cultural teams of experts and as team leader in EU/USAID and UNDP funded projects in ASEAN Member States, Albania, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Bosnia & Herzegovina, Cambodia, Carricom and Caribbean countries, Egypt, China, Cuba, Kosovo, Latvia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Myanmar, Namibia, Romania, Serbia, Slovakia, Turkey and Uzbekistan.
- Extensive experiences in and possesses skills in discussions and negotiations with senior level officials in ministries and government authorities about use of reliable and relevant statistics official statistics in a timely manner and in identifying Twinning as an instrument for knowledge transfer between statistical offices, in drafting guidelines, work plans, and activities for awareness raising.
- English is first Mother Tongue whilst Swedish is second Mother Tongue.

13. Specific experience in the region:

| Country | Date from - Date to |
|---------|---------------------|
|         |                     |
|         |                     |
|         |                     |

14. Professional experience

| Date from - Date to                                        | Location            | Company & reference person (name & contact details)                                                                               | Position                           | Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| October – November 2011                                    | Moldova             | UNDP/Mr. Alexandru Pelivan, Project Manager. T. +373 22 578334Alexandru.pelivan@undp.org                                      | Senior consultant                  | UNDP assignment. consultancy services to the National Bureau of Statistics of the Republic of Moldova on preparation for the post-negotiation of the Association Agreement with EU phase.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| October 2011 for a period of 1 year at different intervals | Qatar               | Qatar Statistical Authority/Mr. Sam La Pina. T +974 4459 4526slaspina@qsa.gov.qa                                              | Senior consultant                  | Develop a national framework for sports statistics. Establish data collection methodology, establish tools for data collection, design output tables and analysis of the results for publication.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| May – June 2011                                            | Cambodia            | SIDA/ March LuonMobile: +855 168 815 98march.luon@sida.se                                                                 | Statistician/evaluation            | SIDA Evaluation of the Swedish support to institutional capacity building of the national Institute of Statistics in Cambodia period 2009 – 11.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| April – May 2011                                           | Namibia             | Lux-Development/ Guirec HALFLANTST. +352–29-58-58-232halfplants@lux-development.lu                                        | Statistician/evaluation            | Final Evaluation Project NAM/348. Final evaluation of the Lux-Development project for capacity building of the Central Bureau of Statistics in Namibia.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| June 2010 – February 2011                                  | CARICOM Secretariat | IBF/ Mr. F. AndréT. 32 2 237 09 00email: info@ibf.be                                                                      | Team Leader/Key statistical expert | Project No: CISP/CCS/R4.2/R4.2.2/SER09.10 Improvement in the Basic Data Production in National Accounts and set up of Statistical Business Register. Carried out an appraisal, assessment and analysis of the situation in MS of CARICOM. Provided guidelines for improvements in source data in particular collection and use of administrative source data. Awareness raising and capacity development activities by performing workshop type of activities.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| July – September 2010                                      | Vietnam             | HanoiTC and Ministry of Education and Training. Ms Dam Thi Hong AnhT. +844 3 9747601 email:damanh@expert.hanoitcgroup.com | Statistical Expert                 | Government of Vietnam and bi-lateral aid agencies funded project. Review and to make assessment of education statistics including source data and to provide guidelines for improvement including the data gathering process and publication in a timely manner.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| October – November 2009                                    | Uzbekistan          | UNDP/Mr. B Aliev, Project ManagerT. +998 71 1201035 email:Bekhzod.Aliev@undpaffiliates.org                                | Senior consultant                  | UNDP assignment. Carried out situation analysis, reviewed legislation and needs assessment for strengthening the Federation of the Societies for Protection of Consumer Rights (FSPCR) and the State Anti-monopoly Committee (SAC) to ensure consumer rights and quality infrastructure is secured.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| February – July 2009                                       | Serbia              | European Profiles S.A.Mr. D BakolasM. +30 6944 6944 47email: dbak@europeanprofiles.gr                                     | Team Leader and EU int. Expert     | EU EuropeAid/126969/C/SER/YU. EC Technical Assistance. Residential Statistical Advisor and project team leader. Improving capacity of the Serbian Statistical Office for developing good management and enforcement practice for adopting European Statistical System requirements in national accounts, preparation of agricultural census, in upgrading ICT structure and in developing communication/dissemination. Drafting work plans, and ToR for deployment of STE and organising study visits to statistical offices in EU MS. Briefings and negotiating with officials of government authorities and organizations representing businesses and trade about the quality of official statistics and its usefulness in decision making. Supervised staff: 4 Key Experts and number of non-key STE and project office management. |
| October-December 2008                                      | China               | Edburgh/Agriconsulting/Ms. G. PoyckT. +31 30 254 4975email: mcpoyck@edburgh.com                                           | Team Leader and EU int. Expert     | EU FWC EUROPEAID/ Lot 9/Request no 2008/163636/1. Team Leader for EC programme Identification and feasibility mission for evaluating EU-China Social Protection Project. Identified areas for EU intervention with twinning technique but not the Twinning Fiche concept. Drafted evaluation/appraisal reports and identification fiches. Briefings with EC in Brussels and ECD as well as MOFCOM and line ministries in Beijing. Supervised staff 2 Int. STE.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| May-October 2008                                           | Azerbaijan          | ECORYS/Ms. D van WindenT. +31 10 4538 536email: danitsja.vanwinden@ecorys.com                                         | Team Leader/Statistical expert | EU FWC EUROPEAID/ 119860/C/SV/multi. Made an appraisal study and evaluated the EC programme support to the State Statistical Committee of the Republic of Azerbaijan. Drafted a Twinning Fiche proposal (value € 1 million) for the development of national statistical system for economic statistics and national accounts with support of a statistical office(s) of EU MS. Carried out a workshop on the findings and recommendations with beneficiary staff, line ministry senior officials, PAO and ECD in Baku. Negotiated with senior management of beneficiary institution on twinning instrument and provided recommendations for step by step adoption of EU standards. Briefing EC about project progress and implementing procedures.                                                                                     |

|                                |                  |                                                                                                                                              |                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|--------------------------------|------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                |                  |                                                                                                                                              |                                 | Supervised staff 1 Int. LTE and 1 Local STE.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| May December 2007              | FYR of Macedonia | Planet S.A./Ms. R.TriantafillidouM.+30 6944747378email: rt@planet.gr                                                                 | Team Leader and EU int. Expert  | EU CARDS 2006 TA related to development of market surveillance, EuropeAid/123473/D/S/MK. EC Technical Assistance to introduce market surveillance system support for ensuring safety of products put on the market and protection of consumer rights for the Ministry of Economy and the State Market Inspectorate. Project co-ordination, briefings with EAR about assessment findings, identifying need for law adjustments and drafting project work plan. Conducted needs analysis and provided training for staff at regional and national level. Organised study visits to corresponding institutions in EU MS.Supervised staff 2 Key Experts and 2 local LTE, several non-key STE.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| March-April 2007               | Egypt            | USAID/Mr. R BuehrerM. +20-10-111-2391email: tbuehrer@nathaninc.com                                                               | EU int. Expert                  | USAID project to support the Ministry of Trade. Conducted a workshop for getting acquainted with the EU requirements about market surveillance in the context for promoting free trade flows between Egypt and EU. Provided recommendations for compiling of economic and trade statistics for assessment of results and needs about policy changes.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| September – November 2006      | Egypt            | GDSI/Pohl ConsultingMs. A LobanovaT: +353 91 761000email: anna.lobanova@gdsi.ie and consultancy@gdsi.ie                          | Team Leader and key Int. Expert | EU FWC. Preparation of a Twinning Project Fiche to develop the organisational capacity of the Central Agency for Public Mobilisation and Statistics 2006/124383. Evaluated the EC statistical programme for Egypt. Drafted a Twinning Fiche proposal value € 1.3 million to modernise the management structure of the Central Statistical Office (Agency for Public Mobilisation and Statistics - CAPMAS) Egypt. Introduced the concept of twinning for adopting the European system of statistics in co-operation with a statistical office(s) of EU MS. Carried out a workshop on the findings and proposals with beneficiary staff and line ministry senior officials, PAO and ECD in Cairo. Negotiated with senior management of beneficiary institution about awareness increasing measures for acceptance of official statistics, reviewed laws and made recommendations for administrative changes. Briefing ECD and PAO in Cairo about project progress and implementing procedures after selection of Twinning statistical partner institution and project launch.Supervised staff 1 Int. LTE for IT. |
| March –April 2006              | Myanmar          | ASEAN Secretariat/Mr. A SutantoT. +62 21 724 33 72email: sutanto@aseansec.org                                                    | Int. Expert                     | German government funded project. Conducted workshop for statisticians and customs statistical staff from Cambodia, Laos, Myanmar and Vietnam on procedures to follow in compiling, and analyses and presentation of foreign trade data. Provided advisory services for adoption of international methodology and standards for proper compilation of commodity foreign trade data.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| January – June 2006            | Lithuania        | Bull s.a./Mr. Ignas SaltisM. +370 5 2487454email: ignas.saltis@bull.lt                                                               | EU Int. Expert                  | EU Services agreement EUROPEAID for INTRASTAT Lithuania statistical programme. EC-funded project. Evaluated statistics of foreign trade in commodities, data entries and storage at the Customs Statistical Office and dissemination by the National Statistical Office. Negotiated with and briefing of senior staff of the both institution on approximation of laws relevant for data collection, methodology application for compilation and transfer of results to EUROSTAT. Reviewed the administrative procedure for co-ordination of work between the Customs and Statistical Office and made recommendations for appropriate changes.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| November-2005December 2005 | ASEAN countries  | Sofreco/EconysMr. B. LesluyesT. +33 1 41 27 95 95email: bertrand.lesluyes@sofreco.com and ble@sofreco.com or welcome@sofreco.com | EU Int. Expert                  | EU FWC Appraisal Mission EC-ASEAN Statistical Capacity Building Programme European Commission Delegation in Jakarta, Indonesia Europeaid/116548/C/SV. Appraisal mission for EC-ASEAN Statistical Capacity Building Programme. Fact finding in collaboration with senior officials of the statistical offices and ministries in ASEAN MS. Provided a report with recommendations for EC intervention under renewed EC technical assistance to ASEAN Secretariat for compiling reliable, relevant and comparable statistics in timely manner. Briefing ECD about findings and possible EC intervention with technical assistance.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| August 2004 - October 2005     | Albania          | DGZfp/IBFMr. F. AndréT. 32 2 237 09 00email: info@ibf.be                                                                         | Team Leader and key Int. Expert | EU CARDS TA Market Surveillance System - Support to the Ministry of Economy Albania. EuropeAid/117774/C/SV/AL. EC- technical assistance (CARDS) to for adoption of EU standards for market surveillance and putting safe products on the market and protecting rights of consumers. Recommended procedures for building up and establishing administrative and management structures for market surveillance and consumer protection/consumers' rights. Provided guidelines for collecting micro-macro data to assess the outcome of policy decisions and identified information to be collected and entered in the statistical business registry for risk analysis. Organised study visits to corresponding institutions in EU MS.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |

|                                |           |                                                                                                           |                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|--------------------------------|-----------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                |           |                                                                                                           |                                 | Supervised staff 1 key expert. and 1 Local LTE, several non-key STE.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| September-2004October 2004 | Kosovo    | ECO3Mr. E HeldringT. +32 2 792 4905email: eric.heldring@eco3.be                               | EU Int. Expert                  | EU FWC Contract AMS/451. Carried out a survey and statistical analysis of the potential claims to land and commercial property (EAR project for UN Mission to Kosovo Housing and Property Directorate).                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| October-2003December 2003  | Armenia   | IBFMr. F. AndréT. 32 2 237 09 00email: info@ibf.be.                                           | EU Int. Expert                  | EU FWC PRSP-MONITORING AND IMPACT FOR EU/EC-PROGRAMMING IN ARMENIA Request for Services N° 2003/71454. Evaluated the poverty reduction strategy programme of the government of Armenia 2004-2006 and identified available statistics as well as further needs. Discussed findings and negotiated with senior line ministry officials, senior staff of UNDP, World Bank and bi-lateral aid agencies and drafted proposal for possible future EC intervention to improve the national statistics in this context.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| July 2003-April 2004       | Slovakia  | Pohl ConsultingMs R KettenstockT. + 49 30 200 89 200email: info@pohl-consulting.org           | Team Leader and keyInt. Exp | EU funded project. Adoption of methodology for INTRASTAT-SK system SK/02/ST/01. Assessed the current status in adoption of EUROSTAT/INTRASTAT methodological system of data compilation and reporting of intra-EU commodity trade to EUROSTAT by the Statistical Central Office of Slovakia. Provided guidelines and instructions for proper adoption of methodology aligned with EUROSTAT requirements. Drafted guidelines and accession requirements. Briefing with beneficiary staff and ECD about status and work plan proposed. Organised study visits to corresponding institutions in EU MS.Supervised staff 1 key expert.                                                                                                                                                             |
| January-September2003      | Romania   | HypodemiMs L LyberopoulouT. +30-210-3303050email: lolalyb@hypodemi.gr andinfo@hypodemi.gr | Team Leader and keyInt. Exp | EU-funded project. Design and Implementation of Query System for Dissemination of General Agricultural Census and Farm Structure Survey Data Project Number : RO613-04 01-04. Reviewed Query System for statistics of agricultural food supply and consumption and provided advice on survey methodology for the staff of the Statistical Central Office (INS) for co-ordination of statistical data compiled by different departments within INS. Drafted reports, work plan and conducted workshop on findings and made recommendations for changes.Supervised staff 1 non-key expert and 5 non-key LTE.                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| November 2002 -July2003    | Romania   | ADEMs. Anna LinkT. +32 10 454510email: Anna.Link@ade.eu andade@ade.eu                     | Team Leader and keyInt. Exp | EU FWC contract. Support for regional socio-economic analysis for National Development Plan, AMS/451. Conducted a regional socio-economic analysis of the National Development Plan 2004-2006; statistical data capture and SWOT analysis. Created framework for economic-statistical analysis of regional disparities and provided guidelines based on accession requirements to the Development and Prognosis Ministry (beneficiary). Promoted the creation of a data base for regional level statistics. Briefing sessions with beneficiary staff and senior staff of line ministries and ECD about procedures for data capture and recommendations for reducing regional disparities in employment and income as a basis for allocating EU regional funds.Supervised staff 5 non-key STE. |
| January – February2003     | China P.R | WM EnterpriseMs L. DawesT. +44 121 236 8855email: mail@wm-enterprise.co.uk                    | EU Int. Exp                     | EU FWC contract. EU Final Evaluation of China Foreign Trade Statistics Project ALA/CHN/97/2. Evaluated China foreign trade statistics for commodities with EU MS, analysed situation and recommendations for adoption of European standards for statistical data collection/presentation. Project cycle management technique applied.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| January – March2003        | Turkey    | Pohl ConsultingMs R KettenstockT. + 49 30 200 89 200email: info@pohl-consulting.org           | Team Leader and keyInt. Exp | EU FWC contract. TA for the establishment of appropriate administrative structures in the Ministry of Industry and Trade regarding market surveillance, AMS/451. Provided advisory services for establishment of appropriate administrative structures in the Ministry of Industry and Trade for enforcement of Market Surveillance (safety of products put on the market) for consumers and professional users. Carry out in-house training programmes for senior staff of beneficiary institutions on work plan to be followed that provides monitoring of results achieved from time to time. Provided guidelines for collecting statistics to monitor and assess the impact of performed surveillance activities from time to time. Organised study visits to institutions in EU MS.          |
| April – July 2002              | Romania   | Pohl ConsultingMs R KettenstockT. + 49 30 200 89 200email: info@pohl-consulting.org           | EU Int. Exp                     | EU FWC contract. TA to National Authority for Consumers Protection on the Phare 2002 programming, Buzduga 26bis –PHARE-RO-PAO/CFCU. Evaluate the administrative and organisational capacity of the Consumer Protection Authority for EU accession. Drafted Project Preparation Facility (PPF). Provided advisory services and guidelines for strengthening market surveillance for consumer protection and safety, business to business micro-macro data analysis                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |

|                                 |                          |                                                                                                |                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|---------------------------------|--------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| January 2002 – June 2002        | Latvia                   | Human Dynamic and BBJMr. B. HullaT. +43 1 402 50 20email: office@humandynamics.org | EU Int. Exp                                            | to assess results and identified data needs in the statistical business registry for this purpose.EU EC technical assistance. Improvement of the Working Environment in Private and Privatised Enterprises in Latvia, SCR-E/112029/D/SV/LV. Provided advisory services for organisational set up of market surveillance for industrial products and improving safety at work, business to business dialogue and risk assessment analysis for the Ministry of Welfare, Directorate of labour Inspection. Drafted guidelines for market surveillance enforcement and reporting that will allow EU compliant methodology to be adopted. Established statistical data and information system relevant to the function of market surveillance and actions taken about complaints on non-compliance to EU MS. Organised study visits to corresponding institutions in EU MS. Supervised staff several non-key STE. |
| November 2001December 2001  | Turkey                   | ADEMs. Anna LinkT. +32 10 454510email: Anna.Link@ade.eu andade@ade.eu          | EU Int. Exp                                            | EU FWC. Assessment and recommendations in specific statistical areas for the modernisation of the statistics system at the State Institute of (SIS) in Turkey, AMS/451. Recommendations for data capture of business unit's for creating statistical business register and to foresee the needs when designing 2003 census of businesses and classification codes enforcement according to EUROSTAT standards.Carried out workshops to explain the EUROSTAT requirements in the accession process about business units in the system of statistics.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| December 2001December 2001  | Macedonia                | CESDMr. N. BourdeauNo longer in operation                                              | EU Int. Exp                                            | EU-funded project . Action 2A Tender No. MA 9804 / 00-0026.00 / SF 1. Provided advisory services for creating the statistical business register according to European standards at the State Statistical Office of Macedonia.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| November 2001-November 2001 | Cuba                     | Swedish ConsultantsNo longer in operation                                                  | Int. Expert                                            | Swedish Aid. Foresaw the needs for development of Cuban statistics to comply with international standards..                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| October 2000-April 2001     | Bosnia &Herzegovina  | IBFMr. J. KooijmansT. +41 22 7996428email: kooijmans@ilo.org                       | Team Leader and keyInt. Exp                        | EU funded project. Establishment of a Sample Frame for Household Surveys, OBNOVA B7 541. Residential Statistical Advisor and Team Leader for Planning and implementation of a household survey. Development of sampling technique and questionnaire for data collection through face-to-face interviews from household units in both entities of the country.Developed application program and data based entry of answers, error listing and correction methods. Trained supervisors and enumerators. This work was carried out in close liaison with the national statistical offices in both entities and representatives of the donor community. Supervised staff 2 non-key LTE.0.                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1997 -2000                      | Sweden/international | Research Bureau VECA, SwedenMr. B. Wicklin (CV Header)                                     | Team Leader and keyexpert                          | Senior consultant for statistical studies and surveys for Swedish Match AB, Swedish Sporting Goods Federation, and Swedish Gaming Industry Association.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 1986-1996                       | Sweden                   | Office of National StatisticsMr. H. Lindblom, Now retiredT. +46 8 506 940 00           | Civil servant/Co-ordinating StatisticalOfficer | Managed and improved sector specific micro/macro economic statistics for the business sector. Experiences in survey design, gathering, screening, and interpretation of data as well as familiarity with information in databases e.g. comparisons of data from business registry and surveys, introduction of classification standards etc.Co-ordinated and monitored developments in newly emerging areas of statistics e.g. design of data capture and entries in data bases, analysis and interpretation of official statistics disseminated to providers and users.Participated at international seminars and workshops. Coordinated and improved international comparability of statistics. Assessed the statistical needs of final users in society. Wrote articles in the professional journals.                                                                                                        |
| 1979 - 1985                     | Sweden                   | Super Pros Int./ Mr. H. Gustafsson, Nowretired                                             | Market Manager                                         | Managed marketing and sales for sports equipment and facilities to municipalities and traders.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 1968 - 1978                     | Sweden                   | Office of National StatisticsMr. Å. Tengblad. Now retiredT. +46 8 506 940 00           | National Expert/Civilservant                       | Compiled, analysed and presented sector national accounts (production, income, consumption, input – output etc.).Micro-macro analysis of business developments. Classification and adoption of international standards. Developed the business registry (observatory) from its inception.Improved methods of compiling and updating information, classification of business units by ownership, activity and other relevant variables. Analysed outcome.Analysed developments and ways to improve data gathering and data entries in database.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 1966 - 1967                     | Sweden                   | Ericsson AB                                                                                    | National Expert                                        | Forecasted demand trends for telephones and equipment in European countries and regions of                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

|  |                             |  |            |
|--|-----------------------------|--|------------|
|  | Mr. K. Wiklund, Now retired |  | the world. |
|--|-----------------------------|--|------------|

15. Other (publication and seminars etc.):

Award winner "Statistician of the Year, 1989" from the Statistical Association of Sweden for compiling and presenting the statistics for newly emerging sectors of the economy, and for communicating the statistics to a broad spectrum of users.

In-house consultation with staff of statistical offices of the newly emerging countries of Europe and Asia in adoption of international standards and methods of compilation and presentation of official statistics.

Over 20 publications in Sweden and internationally including guidelines, manuals and various subject specific publications.

Contact details: Cell ++46 70 6073896    eMail: brian@statveca.com    (wicklin@gmail.com)    Skype: brianwicklin

References:

1. Mr. Joost Kooijmans, I

email: jkooijmans@unicef.org

2. Ms Ramona Kettenstock, Pohl Consulting & Associates, POHL CONSULTING & ASSOCIATES, Torstrasse 92, DE-10119 Berlin-Mitte, Germany. T. + 49 30 200 89 20-0 email:

info@pohl-consulting.org www.pohl-consulting.org

3. Danitsja van Winden, Framework Contracts Unit, ECORYS Research & Consulting,

P.O. Box 4175, 3006 AD Rotterdam, NL-3067 GG Rotterdam, The Netherlands.

Tel: 0031 (0) 10 4538 536 email: danitsja.vanwinden@ecorys.com